

Church wants to invest in the construction of a new zone in Petržalka

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 10.11.2009

A new area for administration, housing and recreation should grow in the city district of Bratislava - Petržalka. Roman Catholic Church, Bratislava Archdiocese, plans to build it in the locality of Kapitúlské polia on the area of over than 368 thousand m². The construction should begin in the mid of 2012, its completion is planned for the end of 2019. It would request 275 to 356 million € - depending on which of the two variants (935 / 3 138 or 1 152 residential units / 4 474 inhabitants) the investor will choose.

10.11.2009 09:28, SITA - Slovak News Agency